

How to Read the Bible

Didactic Literature

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”
2nd Timothy 3:16-17

Goals:

By reading a letter (an ‘epistle’), you’ll learn how to put into practice the principles that you just learned about didactic literature... This will help you to understand what the text means, and how it applies to your life.

Day One: Read the New Testament letter called ‘Colossians’ (all of it in one setting)

Who wrote Colossians? Who was Colossians written to?

Day Two: Read Colossians again (all of it in one setting)

Why do you think Paul wrote this letter? (Hint: it’s in chapter two)

Application 3

How to Read the Bible

Didactic Literature

Day Three: Read Colossians yet again (all of it in one setting)

What is different about chapters one and two versus three and four?

Day Four: Read Colossians yet again (all of it in one setting)

What do you think that Colossians 2:6 means?

Day Five: Read Colossians yet again (all of it in one setting)

After reading Colossians 1:15-20 and Colossians 2:9, what do you think of Jesus?

Day Six: Read Colossians yet again (all of it in one setting)

Colossians 3:15-17 is extremely powerful. For us to accomplish everything described in Colossians 3:1-14, we need to have Jesus 'dwell richly' in us...
